JOB PRINTING.
Book and every description of Commercial and Law printing, in the best manner at Gazette Job shops.

Entered at the Post Office at Janesville, Wis., as second-class matter.
Congress is having a dull time of it.

Those Democrats who are so loud in denouncing the third-term business should remember that the electors of South Carolina voted for the father of Democracy—Thomas Jefferson—for a third term.

The canvass being made by the Indianapolis Journal, of the Presidential question, shows that Blaine is ahead in that State.
At present there have been 2,615 names canvassed, and Blaine has 882, Sherman 723, and Grant 707, with 119 non-committal, and 184 scattering.

Some Democrat should raise a howl about the troops and arms being in the State House in Maine. But they were put there by a Democrat, and that alters the case. Had the Republicans done this thing, there would have been no end to the cry of "down with the bayonet."

There are a good many Democratic papers which maintain that the decision of the Maine Supreme Court was a partisan one. These papers should bear in mind that one of the Judges is a strong Democrat, and agreed with the other Judges in saying that Garcelon and the Council are public thieves.

We publish in our telegraphic columns a dispatch from Boston regarding the Atchison, Topeka, and Santa Fe railway of which Mr. William B. Strong, formerly of Janesville, is the General Manager. The success of that road under his management is almost unparalleled in the history of railways in this country.

If reports can be true, one of the most surprising advances in the use of stock, is that of Edison's Electric Light Company. It was organized with a capital of $300,000 divided into shares of $100 each.
It is now claimed that some of the shares of $100 have been sold for $3,500, and reports say that even $5,000 was bid. The faith of some must be large enough to remove mountains, or else speculators are bulling the market.

The examination of that small specimen of humanity—Ira P. Bacon, of Dane county, is in progress at Madison. It will be remembered that Bacon is a justice of the peace, and that he signed a commitment which took old John Rolfe to jail from age, exposure, and hunger he was at the point of death. A full account of Bacon's inhumanity was published in the Gazette a few days ago. It now appears that Bacon will be held for trial as very damaging testimony is brought against him.

There seems to be a glimmer of hope that the bogus Legislature of Maine will yet be broken up. A dispatch from Boston says: "The State Treasurer's bond is $150,000, and Republicans say that no man in Maine can give such a bond when a decision of the Supreme Court may at any moment declare his bondsmen liable for every cent that he may disburse. So that the money question will have a good deal to do with breaking up the upstart Government." One of the first acts which the Fusion Legislature will attempt to do, will be to elect State officers, and the opinion is current among the Republicans that an injunction will be obtained restraining the Treasurer elected by the rump Legislature, from paying out the State money. If this can be done it will put an end to Garcelon and his gang.

The largest illustrated paper ever issued in the State, is the Oshkosh Daily Northwestern, of January 8, 1880. It contains twenty pages, making one hundred and twenty columns, and on these pages are distributed seventy-five choice illustrations of that city, public buildings, private residences, business blocks, and manufacturing establishments. In addition to all this, there is a carefully written history of Oshkosh, a review of the year, an interesting account of the rise and growth of the various industries of the city, its educational institutions and churches, and a diary of the more important events of 1879. The paper is a credit to the publishers—Allen & Hicks—and is an honor to the city of Oshkosh. The letter press is excellent, and the paper used is the very best. Such an enterprising scheme as this undertaken by the Northwestern, should prove successful, and we trust it will. It deserves the highest success.

There are some Republican papers which are not satisfied with the conduct of the Republicans in Maine at the organization of the Legislature. The Chicago Journal, a paper that is usually praised for its common sense, political wisdom, and sound judgment, speaks as if the Republicans gave away the State to Garcelon's mob.
It says: "If they, (the Republicans) should submit to the outrageous usurpation, they would forfeit the respect and confidence of the country. They have already disappointed their friends outside of the State by permitting the organization of both houses by the usurpers. It remains to be seen if they have said enough in their glizzards to redeem themselves." This is an unjust attack on the Republicans of Maine. Whatever could have been done to defeat the revolutionary scheme of the Fusionists has been done, and the Journal ought to know that fact. It is not an easy matter for the minority to ride over the majority. If the Journal has any new tactics which will enable the disfranchised Republicans to enter the State House at Augusta, drive the thieves therefrom, organize the Legislature as it should be, and elect David Governor, it should forthwith make known these tactics to Eugene Hale and his followers, and it would receive the thanks of

VOLUME 23

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN, FRIDAY, JANUARY 9, 1880.

NUMBER 259

OBSEQUIES

Of the Late Surgeon General E. S.
Wolcott, at Milwaukee.

The Nation, for that would settle the Maine question, and all this fuss about it would come to an end. The Journal editor does wrong in not going to Maine and taking command of the Republican forces, and succeed in doing what he grumbles at the Republicans for not doing.
If the editor of the Journal has any "sand in his gizzard" he will march on the Fusionists at once and defeat the whole crowd, and re-establish the Republican rule in Maine.

THE MAINE QUESTION.

Yesterday's Developments in the Legislature—The Republicans confident Augusta, Jan. 8.—The session of the Legislature to-day was a brief one, but the Republicans in that time gained an important advantage. After the journal had been read Mr. Hale arose to call attention to omissions, and caused the roll of members sworn in to be read and entered; also the yea and nay vote to be entered, which had been omitted, and which showed that no quorum was present at the organization.
Other important additions to the journal were made, by which the Republicans will be able to substantiate their claim to the illegality of the organization.

The Republicans-elect then presented themselves for qualifications, but the President of the Senate objected to administering the oath without further consideration and advice.
Immediately after the house adjourned.
What the Fusionists programme for tomorrow is cannot be found out. The general opinion is that they intend to adjourn over to Monday or Tuesday, in order to gain time and some possible advantage, although many believe the House will send up two names to the Senate from which to elect a Governor. Another complication is the divided opinion as to whether the executive council hold over until another is chosen, the members of the Council holding the affirmative view, while F. Gould, Esq., who has been their legal adviser, thinks they do not. As it is claimed that the members-elect shall be sworn in by the Governor in the presence of the Council this becomes important.

Another question is as to the right of the President of the Senate to assume the functions of Governor, pending the election. There is, it is said, but one precedent in this State, and that time it was regarded as a warranted assumption.
The Republicans to-night feel elated over the prospects, but what their expectations are based upon, or what is to be the line of future progress, has not yet transpired. It is believed that not many weeks, even if not within a few days, the Republicans will hold the fort, and be firmly established in a government based on the will of the people, and not the creature of an infamous and unscrupulous cohort of conspirators. The whole atmosphere seems to be pregnant with the un-namable and indescribable feeling of approaching victory, and so general is this feeling that many, who after the first temporary and, as is believed, ephemeral success of the Fusionists, had decided to return home, have reconsidered their determination and concluded to wait awhile and see what will turn up.

DELEGATE CANNON.

A Petition for His Expulsion from the House of Representatives.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—An Association called the Mormons' Anti-Polygamy Society of Utah, had published and distributed among members of Congress, a memorial demanding the expulsion of George Q.
Cannon, now serving his fourth term as delegate in Congress from Utah. The memorial, signed by the officers and Executive Committee of the society, all women alleges that Cannon is one of the twelve Mormon apostles, and one of the ablest and most strenuous upholders of this disgraceful institution, polygamy. The fair petitioners assert that although Cannon cowardly declined to become a member of the House, he has four wives with whom he lives openly, and introduces as such, and the memorialists give the following inventory of his marital treasures: First wife, Elizabeth Hogland Cannon, has six children, four sons and two daughters; the second wife, Sarah Jane Joney, has four sons and one daughter; the third wife, Eliza Tenney, has two children, boys; the fourth wife, Martha Tilly, has five children, twin girls, and three boys.

INSANE HOSPITAL.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 8.—Governor Smith
and the Presidents of the insane hospitals
of the State, who were constituted by law
a Board for the re-apportionment of State hospital districts, have directed that Jefferson county be detached from the Northern District and attached to the State District. Accordingly, all patients at the Oshkosh Hospital from Jefferson county will be at once transferred to the State Hospital, near Madison.

CHRONIC DYSPEPSIA.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Jan. 8.—Mrs. Margaret Tully, aged 70, living in the eastern part of the city, has lived nineteen days without tasting food of any kind. She suffered with chronic dyspepsia, and was taken with a spasm. Reviving from this she was possessed with the hallucination that she had no stomach, and all efforts of her friends and doctors to persuade her or otherwise induce her to take food are unavailing. She is a mere shadow, and her death is hourly expected.

SILVER DOLLARS.

Treasurer Gilliland Complains of the Over Coinage at the Mint.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Treasurer Gilliland to-day that, notwithstanding heavy payments, the standard silver dollars continued to accumulate in his vaults until he now has nearly $34,000,000. He complains that Director Burchard, who has $2,300,000 monthly, when $3,000,000 is all that the law requires. Burchard, however, construes the law to mean $2,000,000 per month of bullion, which swells the coinage to about $2,300,000 monthly. Treasurer Gilliland called the attention of Judge Buckner, Chairman of the Banking and Currency Committee, to this, but Buckner made no objection. He is decidedly a silver dollar man, and prefers that coinage be increased rather than diminished.

MUST HANG.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 8.—A Frankfort special says: To-day the Court of Appeals affirmed the decision of the Circuit Court in the case of Robert Anderson, convicted of the murder of his wife in Louisville. On the evening of April 18, 1873, Anderson under the influence of liquor, murdered his wife in the presence of his little daughter and a crippled son, who were the main witnesses against him. The trial was commenced on the 10th of January, 1879, and on the 17th of the same month he was convicted, the jury returning a verdict of guilty, with the death penalty. On the 21st of the same month a motion was made for a new trial, which was overruled by Judge Jackson.
April 30, and he was sentenced to be hanged on the 27th of June. The case taken to the Court of Appeals, and has been affirmed as stated. The Governor will now have to issue a warrant fixing the day of execution.

ORIENTAL.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—Mrs. F. Grant has appeared in Washington in some quaint Eastern attire, presented to her by her brother-in-law, a dress of some wonderful oriental fabric, and a number of Hindu-stani ornaments, including bangles which almost concealed her arms from wrist to elbow.

DEADWOOD.

DEADWOOD, D. T., Jan. 8.—The escape of Deadwood from being totally destroyed by fire a second time, this morning, was most miraculous. About midnight timber on the hillside, on Shoemaker Gulch, caught fire from a miner's torch, and, fanned by high wind, spread through that gulch into Blacktail, over the divide into City Creek and Forest Hill, inside the city limits, where, by the superhuman efforts of the firemen and citizens, it was got under control with the loss of only a few cabins and some cord wood. The wind blew almost a hurricane and did considerable damage in different parts of the city. All stores were cleared of goods, and had the fire reached the heart of the city, could have destroyed but little else than empty buildings. The wildest excitement prevailed throughout the night.

DECLINE IN WHEAT.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—It is claimed by some merchants here that the rapid decline in the Liverpool market has broken the wheat corner, and that wheat will now decline as rapidly as it advanced when Keene and other heavy operators cornered the market. It is estimated by some that there will be a decline of over twenty cents a bushel, which will put the price at its normal rate. Grain shippers, in view of an anticipated decline, are busily engaged in seeking vessel charters for foreign shipments, and there is unusual activity among the large fleet now lying at the wharves. Ocean freights were firmer yesterday for grain-carrying vessels, the ruling rate for sailing vessels being four shillings.

GOOD FOR STRONG.

Boston, Jan. 8.—The Transcript says the rise in Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe stocks has been regarded by many as unprecedented in the history of the Boston stock market, and therefore, unwarranted. This is a very superficial view of the case. The fact is, that the increase in the earnings of the road is unprecedented in the railroad history of the country. The earnings of the road with 500 miles were $1,210,000, and in 1879, with 1,133 miles, they were $6,388,000. A cash dividend of 3 per cent has been declared on the stock, which is the second cash dividend, the first having been paid in August last.

BACON'S EXAMINATION.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 8.—The examination of Ira P. Bacon, the Waunakee Justice of the Peace, who so inhumanly sentenced old John Rolfe to the Dane county jail, and who died as soon as he was incarcerated from the effects of exposure, commenced before Municipal Judge Braley to-day.

Some very damaging testimony was elicited. Large numbers of Waunakee people thronged the court room. The case was further postponed until the 16th.

INSANE HOSPITAL.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 8.—Governor Smith
and the Presidents of the insane hospitals
of the State, who were constituted by law
hospital districts, have directed that Jefferson county be detached from the Northern District and attached to the State District. Accordingly, all patients at the Oshkosh Hospital from Jefferson county
Hospital, near Madison.

COSTLY FUN.

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 8.—Mr. O. Wick, a merchant of Nelsonville, Wisconsin came into town early this week to buy goods. He made his purchase of winter and spring stocks and then went in for some "fun with the boys." This morning he reports a loss of $230, that he believes was stolen from him while making a night of it. One of the dens back of the city hall. Wick had about $700 in a shirt pocket that was unmolested.

THE INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

WAUKESHA, Jan. 7.—The newspapers here, for reasons best known to themselves, do not take any apparent interest in the reports flying around as to the crookedness at the Reform School. We are told one day that everything is square and straight.
Again, we hear that the accounts are so mixed, that none but experts can understand head or tail about them. Again, that one expert is not enough, but two must be engaged. Again, that the bookkeeper is in fault, and is attempting to shift the responsibility on the shoulders of an ex-Superintendent. Now the public is interested in knowing where the fault is, if anything is wrong. If the Managers and Superintendents have kept in the service of the State an incompetent and unworthy accountant for some five or six, he is not the only one to blame. Tax payers have some rights, and the trustees of the people's money cannot always keep a knowledge of the facts from the people. If the bookkeeper is incompetent, why is he retained?
If he is something worse, why was he ever employed? Why is it that some weeks have passed since this investigation was begun, and no one knows anything that was not known at the beginning? I have watched and waited anxiously, patiently, and in vain.

JEWELRY NOTES.

Lace pins are the fashion.
Full dress studs are plentiful.
Amethysts are in demand for men's wear.
Bracelets with a single leaf on the top are pretty.
Link sleeve buttons are the popular demand.
Gold banded bracelets are shown in great quantities.
Labrador spar is much used for masculine scarf-pins.
Certain qualities of diamonds are exceedingly scarce.
Gold and platinum watch chains remain fashionable.
Lockets in Italian, gold and diamond are in great demand.
Diamonds still hold their place of honor among jewels.
Oddities in design are the rule for gentleman's cuff-buttons.
A quaint scarf-pin is a toad carrying a tombstone umbrella.
An enamelled owl, with a high hat doned in, is a new scarf-pin.
A new horseshoe for male wear has nail heads of different hues.
Onyx bracelets set with pearls to match the lace-pin are elegant.
A great number of rubies, emeralds and sapphires are being sold.
Japanese designs are being rendered in more picturesque patterns.
Small wall-friezes, with one cover lifted, are designed in colored gold.
There is a greater demand for gold watches than ever before.
Bracelets show patterns almost as intricate as the diamond lace of last year.
A profile of the man in the moon lends expression to one of the scarf-pins.
Palm leaf scarf pins in copper silver and gold, are more attractive by a new style of enamel.
Large buttons of engraved silver with a blue enamel figure are new and very attractive.

JEWELRY NOTES.

Among novelties in bracelets some of hammered gold show small indentations of the hammer over the surface.
Gypsy rings are plain, rounded gold bands with a ruby, sapphire or cat's-eye in the center and a diamond on each side.
These stones are buried in the gold, showing only the surface.

THE OAK AND THE IVY.

In the wood a modest ivy dwelt, Apart and hid from view, But near by standing in his might,
A stately oak tree grew.
The zephyrs blowing through the leaves, They speak so soft, so dear,
The ivy raised her gentle head,
The loving words to hear.

But shy and blushing, as the morn At dawn the oak had said, Though listening long for more,
Again she bows her head.
The oak tree opens wide his arms,
He lifts the little face,
And the ivy lingers then no more
The oak tree is the pulchre.
She leans her graceful, twisting form,
On her lover bold and strong,
And whispering to him sweet and low,
Time passes swift along.

WISHING AND HAVING.

If to wish and to have were one, my dear,
You would be sitting now With not a care in your mind or heart;
Not a wrinkle upon your brow;
The clock of time would go back with you,
All the years you have been born;
Till his golden hands had pointed out The happiest hour of your life;
I would see you then at that moment's hour;
The clock should no longer run;
You could not be sad and sick and old—
If to wish and to have were one.

You are not here in the winter, my love,
The snow is not upon the roof;
You are in the heart of the summer woods,
In your dear old sea-side town;
A pattern of little feet in the leaves,
A beautiful bow at your side;
He is gathering flowers in the shady nook—
It was but a dream that he died!
Keep hold of his hands, and sing to him;
No mother under the sun Has such a precious gift as yours—
If to wish and to have were one.

Metaphors I am with you there, dear wife,
In that old house by the sea;
I have flown to you as the bird flies
To his mate in the poplar-tree;
A sailor's hammock hangs at the door,
You swing in it, book in hand;
A boat is staid in the harbor,
Its keel now grates on the sand;
Your brothers are coming—two manly men, Whose lives have only one end;
Their days will be long in the land, dear heart—
If to wish and to have were one.

How Many People Have $50.

New York Graphic.
Some one said the other day, that in the entire world the number who had $50 or its equivalent in cash at their command was extremely small—so small, indeed, that altogether they would not number the inhabitants of the little kingdom of Belgium, which has a population of 6,000,000 souls. But this estimate appears to be far below the mark in the light of the fact that in the savings banks of France, in 1877 there were deposited no less than $153,000,000 by 2,833,283 depositors, the average sum of each depositor being about $50. The number of these depositors continually increases, and they are, to a very large extent, members of the working classes. So, in England, also, the number of depositors in the postal savings bank is very large—no less, on the whole, than two millions—and their deposits, on the average, amount nearer to $50, the limit allowed, than $50. In Scotland and Ireland the savings of the people are large and constantly increasing. In Germany the people do not generally place their savings in banks, but they have comfortable little sums laid away in teapots and old stockings. This, also, is the case in France. In this country the number of people who have $50 at their command must amount to quite as many as in either France, Germany or Great Britain. The world of working people is not nearly as poor as many imagine it to be.

We Dr. Meyer's Treatise on Catarrh explains the following important facts:
1. That Catarrhal Poison becomes a potential infection, at first local, and finally constitutional.
2. That, being Constitutional, the infection reaches the reach of mere local remedies.
3. That impurities in the nostrils are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and absorbed into the system, thus poisoning the Digestive, Respiratory and Genito-urinary organs.
4. That Catarrhal virus follows the mucous membrane and causes Deafness, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhea, Bronchitis, Leucor-rhea, and Gonorrhea.
5. That abscesses, Douches, Inhalations, and Isolable Snuffs, cannot possibly remove infectious inflammation from the organs named.
6. That an antidote for Catarrh must possess immediate virulence, and the quality of being absorbed by the purulent mucous membrane wherever located.
Based upon these plain theories, Dr.
W. Dr. Meyer's Catarrh Cure has proved to be infallible. It not only cures, it cures Catarrh at any stage. Home testimony:

signals, so that nothing of the kind could possibly occur again.

"We examined the light, and could see no possible reason why it should have gone out. It was full of oil, with a perfect wick, and there was no wind blowing, although it had been there for some time remained burning, as it had before through many a storm. Now, what was it that spoke in my ear? What was it that forced me to say that train? There were ordinarily but two passenger cars on the express, and this night there were seven, all full."

THE BOYS AT WORK.

Interesting Experiments in Corn Raising by a Hundred and Thirty-Five Maine Boys—An Example Worthy of Wide Imitation.

William B. Allen, Esq., for many years past a successful business in Boston, returning a lively interest in the place where he spent his boyhood, a quarter of a century or more ago—York county, Maine.
One of the ways of manifesting this interest is in stimulating the boys of the present day to observation, thought and experiment. Last spring he offered $200 in prizes —one of $100, one of $50, and five for $10 each—to the boys in the county under 17 years of age, who should produce the most Indian corn upon one-eighth of an acre. Each boy intending to compete was to send his name before May 1st, to the President of the County Agricultural Society, who had charge of awarding the prizes. About two hundred boys responded. A committee of one or more men were appointed in each town to measure every parcel of ground, and to be present at the harvesting, husking, and weighing of the crop, and report to the Town House in Alfred, on October 25.
Each boy was to plant his corn in a field furnished, giving a full account of the time of planting, kind of seed corn, and full particulars as to manure, cultivation, etc. (These blanks will be found in book form by Mr. Allen, and kept in the archives of the County Agricultural Society for reference and use.) We have before us the report of Mr. John Hall, President of the Society, giving full account of the results obtained by 135 of the boys, some 75 of whom were present with their parents and many others, at the time of making the reports. We regret not to have been among the number to have seen the displays of the specimens of corn, and especially to have seen the bright-eyed, enthusiastic boys. We have, however, an epitome of some of the results. The cars were reckoned at 70 lbs. for a shelled bushel of 56 lbs.

The average yield of the whole 135 trials was just about 100 bushels of shelled corn to the acre. The first prize was awarded to Mr. William B. Allen, of Biddeford, for 160 bushels per acre; 21 to David J. Morrill, of Cornish, 153 bushels. The next five prizes went to A. O. Bennett, of Waterboro, 145 bushels; Cyrus H. Smith, of Dayton, 144 bushels; Willie B. Moore, of Limerick, 143 bushels; Charles G. Austin, of Lebanon, 141 bushels; and Arthur M. Doering, of Waterboro, 140 bushels. Six prizes of 131 to 137 bushels per acre; 13 raised 120 to 137 bushels; 23 produced 110 to 119 bushels; 34 produced 100 to 109 bushels—making 72 boys who grew 100 bushels and upward; 23 others produced from 90 to 99 bushels per acre; 29 obtained 75 to 89 bushels of shelled corn per acre, owing to a poor soil, lack of fertilizer, or many of the boys getting the lesser crops were entitled to high praise for their efforts.
Indeed we commend every boy who has the intelligence and spirit to enter the contest.

This shows what can be done in producing corn in a county in Maine, lying between 42° and 44° north latitude. Not having the reports before us, we cannot judge as to the profit of such crops, the cost of manure, cultivation, etc., nor are we concerned as to this in the present case.
The important result is the effect upon the boys themselves, and upon many other boys in the county and elsewhere. These boys were led to think, reason, observe, and will each examine into how and why this and that one succeeded better or poorer than themselves. They will be better thinkers and workers hereafter. Mr. Allen's thoughtful offer will be worth to his native county, in the far reaching future results, more than tens of thousands of dollars expended in some ways that might have been selected. We heartily wish there might be a Stillman Allen for every county in the whole country; and where there is not, we suggest that a like sum—$100,000—some fast "tag"—be appropriated by the State to the benefit of some hundreds of young men. The boys of 17 and under today, are to be the actors upon the stage a very few years hence.

P. S.—Mr. Allen is so pleased with the result in York county, that he now offers prizes of $200, $50, and five prizes of $10 to the boys of the entire State, who shall produce the most corn from one-eighth acre during 1880. The award will be made at the State Fair, to be held in September. He is sure to compete, will send his name and address to Hon. B. F. Hamilton, Pres't Maine Agr. Soc., Hallowell, Me.—American Agriculturist, Jan. 1.

Caution.

A WORD TO THOSE WHO USE POROUS PLASTERS. It is a universally acknowledged fact that

BENSON'S CAPRINE POROUS PLASTERS ARE SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS.
The great demand for them has caused a number of unscrupulous parties to make and sell worthless imitations under the name of Capricum or Capella. As the market is flooded with inferior plasters selling at any price it is important for the consumer to know which is the best. It is well known that some of the cheap plasters have been examined and found to contain injurious ingredients which make them dangerous to use, causing paralysis and other diseases. All genuine BEN-SON'S CAPRINE PLASTERS have the word CAPRINE cut in them. BENJAMIN B. BENSON & JOHN-SON, Pharmaceutical Chemists, New York. PRICE 25 CTS. per sheet.

DRY GOODS.

McCLERNAN &amp; CO.

Have just received their Fall and Winter stock of Dry Goods.
Our counters are completely crowded and we now want to get rid of them. The best way we find to do this is to sell them cheap.
Therefore we call the ladies special attention to our new style of double width Dress Goods called the Momie. These are the latest novelties in fashionable circles, and were the most prominent on exhibition at the late grand openings in Chicago. We sell all the leading colors, plum, dregs of wine, &c., at the low price of 31c, sold elsewhere for 50c per yard. Matelasse and Basket Cloth in all shades, 10c, 12c and 15c per yard. Alpaca in all shades 15c per yard. A nice line of plaid and figured goods at 8c per yard. Our $1 French Cashmere is the best in the world —so the ladies say. French Cambrics one yard wide 9c per yd.
Standard Prints 5c. Linen Toweling 5c. Table Linen 20c. The best $1 Corset in the city; a nice Corset for 26c. A large assortment of Paisley and double faced India Shawls from $5 to $25. Woolen Shawls from $3 to $8. Blankets and Flannels at reduced prices. Great bargains in Domestic Goods and Notions

CLOAKS AND CIRCULARS.

A large stock of Cloaks, fifty different styles, which we sell at reduced prices. A $30 Cloak for $15; a $15 Cloak for $8; a $10 Cloak for $5. Ladies, remember we keep no old cloaks on hand, as we return what are left to our customers. With Silk Cuffs and Tassels.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

WHAT EMINENT PHYSICIANS SAY.

Coldest and most dangerous of all diseases is Rheumatism, particularly when it is located in the joints, and especially in the hands and feet. It is a disease which is not only painful, but which is also dangerous to the life, and which is also difficult to cure. It is a disease which
dangerous to the life, and which is also
